About Us

CRIOO, With more than twenty years of expertise in the international market, is dedicated to the development and innovation of "light health products." Under the banner of the "CRIOO" brand, our fundamental ethos is centered on the principle of "one bright light – illuminating life's journey."

We are committed to providing comprehensive solutions for maintaining a healthy light environment at home, designing light-based health gifts that enhance life's aesthetics, and offering product solutions that foster both physical and mental well-being.

About Us

CRIOO' s vision is to be the “light health” consultant for every user, utilizing light health gifts to convey the world' s classic culture. We aspire to illuminate millions of homes globally, “lighting love” for the physical and mental well-being of countless families, while bringing warmth, light, and hope to each household. We adhere to the philosophy of selecting materials with a green, environmentally friendly, and ecological mindset.

CRIOO' s mission is to light up hearts and pass on the light, inheriting classics to create a better world. Guided by the values of Sincerity, Gratitude, Innovation, and Growth, we strive to make a positive impact on individuals and communities alike.
